

Fact-Checking Contract Language

Fact-Checking: You will provide [[insert publication name]] with any information or materials required for a fact-check including: an annotated story draft; back-up materials such as interview recordings, reporting notes, photographs, copies of reports or journal articles, and books and their relevant pages; and contact information for sources. You will also remain available for follow-up questions from [[insert publication name]]'s editorial and fact-checking staff, and will alert the editor on upcoming travel and other issues that may disrupt timely communication.